Dear Mr. Casey:

Your most welcome letter of June 27, has arrived. I look forward to welcoming you, your family and guests to Westminster during the weekend of October 28, 29 and 30. The Green Lecture Convocation will be held on campus on Saturday, October 29 at 2:30 p.m. Other events will be scheduled later. It would be helpful if you would let us know who on your staff should be contacted by us regarding specifics of your visit. [redacted]

[redacted] Director of Development at Westminster, will be making arrangements at the college.

As the Green Lecturer you will receive an honorary degree from the college. I have shared with Clare Luce the good news of your acceptance of our invitation. It is our hope that she will return to Westminster to cite you for the honorary degree.

The Green Lecture is the most important event in our academic year, and the roster of Green Lecturers is an honor roll of distinguished international leaders. We are pleased that you have consented to continue the tradition of outstanding visitors to Westminster for this important event.

You honor us with your acceptance.

Sincerely,
